

GENERAL ELECTION RESULTS

The Nov. 5 general election produced dramatic results for Building Trades union members and families. Most candidates endorsed by the Trades won their races, and important ballot measures for construction also won. On the national level, the Building Trades did not endorse Donald Trump, who won with 77,284,118 million votes against Trades endorsee Kamala Harris with 74,999,166.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PRESIDENT
Donald Trump

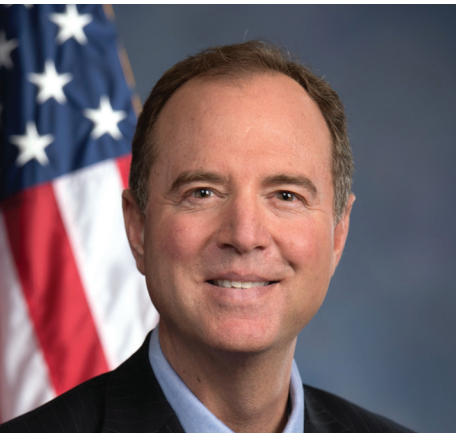

Donald Trump

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES SENATOR

Adam Schiff, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won a full term with 58.9 percent of the votes, and he won the remainder of the late Sen. Dianne Feinstein’s unexpired term with 58.8 percent.

Adam Schiff

STATEWIDE PROPOSITIONS
The Building Trades supported these winning ballot measures:

PROP 2: $10 billion for school building and renovation work, which will be done under prevailing wage/Project Labor Agreements; won with 59 percent of the votes.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY COLLEGE BONDS
The Building Trades supported these measures, and work will be done under prevailing wage and Project Labor Agreements
DISTRICT	MEASURE	AMOUNT	WINNING PERCENTAGE
Los Angeles Unified School District	MEASURE US	$9 billion	68 percent
Antelope Valley Joint Union High School District	MEASURE AVH	$398 million	64 percent
Compton Community School District	MEASURE CC	$200 million	68 percent
Long Beach Community College District	MEASURE	$990 million	69 percent
Lynwood Unified School District	MEASURE U	$80 million	62 percent
Mt. San Antonio Community College District	MEASURE V	$750 million	56 percent
Pomona Unified School District	MEASURE UU	$385 million	70 percent
Rio Hondo Community College District	MEASURE RH	$442 million	65 percent
Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District	MEASURE	$495 million	63 percent
Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District	MEASURE MM	$395 million	62 percent

PROP. 3: Constitutional amendment for marriage equality won with 63 percent.

PROP. 4: $10 billion for drinking water improvements, climate, wild-fire and forest programs; work will be done under prevailing wage/Project Labor Agreements; won with 60 percent.

These supported ballot measures lost:
PROP. 5: Constitutional amendment to lower the vote requirement from two-thirds to 55 percent to build affordable housing and infrastructure; 55 percent opposed.
PROP. 6: Constitutional amendment to prohibit involuntary servitude of incarcerated people; 53 percent of voters opposed.
PROP. 32: Raise state minimum wage to $17-$18; 50.7 percent opposed.

Other Propositions:
PROP. 33: Expand rent control; 60 percent of voters opposed.
PROP. 34: Restrict spending of prescription drug revenue; passed with 51 percent.
PROP. 35: Provide permanent funding for Medi-Cal; passed with 68 percent.

Nathan Hochman

PROP. 36: Provide increased sentences for certain drug and theft crimes; passed with 68 percent.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY

MEASURE A:

Will raise funds for affordable housing and renter protection. Work will be done under a Project Labor Agreement and prevailing wage.

MEASURE A PASSED WITH 58 PERCENT.

District Attorney
Nathan Hochman won with 60 percent.

U.S. CONGRESS
District 26 (Agoura Hills/Calabasas): Building Trades endorsee, Democrat Julia Brownley, won re-election with 56 percent.

District 27 (Santa Clarita/Antelope Valley): George Whitesides, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, defeated incumbent Mike Garcia with 51.3 percent of the votes.

George Whitesides

District 28 (Pasadena/San Gabriel Valley): Judy Chu, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 65 percent.

ELECTIONS

Luz Rivas

District 29 (Arleta/San Fernando Valley/Van Nuys):

Luz Rivas, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 70 percent of the votes.

District 30 (Burbank/Glendale/Hollywood):

Laura Friedman, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 68 percent of the votes.

District 31 (El Monte/West Covina):

Gil Cisneros, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 60 percent.

District 32 (Malibu/San Fernando Valley):

Democrat Brad Sherman, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 66 percent.

Jimmy Gomez

District 34 (Downtown LA/East LA/Koreatown):

Democrat Jimmy Gomez, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 55.6 percent.

District 35 (Ontario/Pomona):

Democrat Norma Torres, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 58 percent.

District 36 (Santa Monica/South Bay):

Ted Lieu, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 69 percent of the votes.

District 37 (Baldwin Hills/Century City):

Democrat Sydney Kamlager, endorsed by the Building Trades, won a strong re-election bid with 78 percent.

2 BUILDING TRADES NEWS

District 38 (Norwalk/Whittier):

Democrat Linda Sanchez, endorsed by the Building Trades, won her eighth term with 60 percent.

District 42 (Long Beach):

Democrat Robert Garcia, endorsed by Building Trades, won re-election with 68 percent of the votes.

District 43 (Inglewood/Torrance):

Maxine Waters, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 75 percent support.

District 44 (Carson/Wilmington):

Incumbent Democrat Nanette Diaz Barragan won with 71 percent.

STATE SENATE

District 23 (Antelope Valley/Santa Clarita):

Building Trades endorsee Kipp Mueller, a Democrat, lost to Republican Suzette Martinez Valladares, who gained 52.4 percent of the votes.

District 25 (Alhambra/Glendale/Pasadena):

Democrat Sasha Renee Perez, endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 60 percent of the votes.

Sasha Renee Perez

District 27 (Malibu/San Fernando Valley):

Henry Stern, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 60 percent.

District 33 (Long Beach/Paramount):

Incumbent Democrat Lena Gonzalez won with 70 percent.

District 35 (Carson/Inglewood):

Democrat Laura Richardson narrowly won an open seat with 50.6 percent of the votes.

Laura Richardson

STATE ASSEMBLY

District 34 (Palmdale):

Republican incumbent Tom Lackey, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 62 percent.

District 39 (Lancaster/Palmdale):

Incumbent Democrat Juan Carrillo, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 58 percent.

District 40 (Castaic/Santa Clarita):

Democrat Pilar Schiavo, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 53 percent.

District 41 (Pasadena/Sierra Madre):

John Harabedian, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 58.5 percent of the votes.

Celeste Rodriguez

District 43 (Pacoima/San Fernando):

Celeste Rodriguez, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 67 percent.

District 44 (Burbank/North Hollywood):

Democrat Nick Schultz, endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 66 percent.

Nick Schultz

District 46 (Encino/Tarzana):

Jesse Gabriel, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 63 percent of the votes.

District 48 (Glendora/West Covina):

Democrat Blanca Rubio, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 62 percent.

District 49 (Alhambra/El Monte):

Mike Fong, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 62 percent of the votes.

District 51 (Beverly Hills/Hollywood/West LA):

Rick Chavez Zbur, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, strongly won re-election with 75 percent.

District 52 (Echo Park/Highland Park):

Building Trades endorsee Jessica Caloza, a Democrat running for an open seat, won with 67 percent of the votes.

District 53 (Pomona):

Building Trades endorsee Michelle Rodriguez, a Democrat running for an open seat, won with 58 percent.

District 54 (Downtown LA/Boyle Heights):

Democrat Mark Gonzalez, endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 56 percent.

Mark Gonzalez

District 55 (Culver City/West Adams):

Democrat Isaac Bryan, endorsed by the Building Trades, easily won re-election with 81 percent of the votes.

District 56 (Industry/Whittier):

Incumbent Democrat and Building Trades endorsee Lisa Calderon won re-election with 57 percent.

District 57 (South LA):

Democrat Sade Elhawary won an open seat with 61 percent.

District 61 (Hawthorne/Inglewood)

Tina McKinnor, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 76 percent of the votes.

District 62 (Bellflower/Lynwood):

Democrat Jose Luis Solache, endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 66 percent.

Jose Luis Solache

Mike Gipson

District 64 (Bell/Downey/Norwalk): Incumbent Democrat Blanca Pacheco, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 62 percent of the votes.

District 65 (Compton/Wilmington): Incumbent Democrat Mike Gipson, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election decisively with 71 percent of the votes.

District 66 (Manhattan Beach/Torrance): Democrat Al Muratsuchi won re-election with 60 percent.

District 69 (Carson/Long Beach): Josh Lowenthal, a Democratic incumbent endorsed by the Building Trades, was re-elected with 68 percent of the votes.

Josh Lowenthal

CITY ELECTIONS

All races are nonpartisan, so no party preference is specified.

LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCIL

District 2: Adrin Nazarian, endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 54 percent of the votes.

District 10: Heather Hutt, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 63 percent.

District 14: Ysabel Jurado defeated incumbent Kevin de Leon with 57 percent of the votes.

LONG BEACH CITY COUNCIL

District 4: Daryl Supernaw won re-election with 58 percent, defeating Building Trades choice Herlinda Chico.

ALHAMBRA COUNCIL

District 4: Nan Wang won with 43 percent, defeating three other candidates. Building Trades endorsee Je-Show Yang came in third with 15 percent.

BELL GARDENS COUNCIL

Jorgel Chavez, endorsed by the Building Trades, finished first of four candidates for two seats with 38 percent. Isabel Guillen also won with 30 percent.

Jorgel Chavez

BURBANK COUNCIL

With two seats to fill, Konstantine Anthony, endorsed by the Building Trades, was re-elected, leading a field of nine candidates with 23 percent. Chris Rizzotti came in second, and Building Trades endorsee Eddy Polon was fifth with 11 percent.

EL MONTE MAYOR

Jessica Ancona, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 52 percent of the votes.

INGLEWOOD COUNCIL

District 4: Dionne Faulk, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election over three other candidates with 52 percent.

MONTEBELLO CITY COUNCIL

District 2: Scarlet Peralta, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 73 percent.

Scarlet Peralta

District 4: David Torres, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 54 percent.

Recall: To remove Angie Jimenez from her seat representing District 5. The Building Trades opposed the recall but it passed with 63 percent.

Austin Bishop

PALMDALE COUNCIL

District 1: Austin Bishop, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 50.37 percent of the votes.

District 2: Richard Loa, endorsed by the Building Trades, ran and won unopposed.

Richard Loa

POMONA

Council: The three Building Trades-endorsed candidates did not win. In District 1, Debra Martin defeated incumbent John Nolte. In District 4, Elizabeth Ontiveros-Cole won re-election with 54.5 percent over Guillermo Gonzalez. In District 6, Lorraine Canales defeated Miranda Sheffield for an open seat with 54 percent.

Measure Y: The Building Trades opposed this measure, which mandates certain spending by the city and could possibly cut union jobs. It passed with 62 percent.

SAN FERNANDO COUNCIL

The two Building Trades-endorsed candidates did not win. The two seats available were won by the top vote-getters, Victoria Garcia with 29 percent and Patty Lopez with 23 percent. The Building Trades endorsees, Sean Rivas and Jason Strickler, came in third and fifth, respectively.

SANTA CLARITA COUNCIL

District 1: Patsy Ayala, endorsed by the Building Trades, won in a multi-candidate field with 36 percent of the votes.

SANTA MONICA COUNCIL

The two Building Trades-endorsed candidates both won: Dan Hall, who led the field of 10 candidates with 13.3 percent of votes, and Natalya Zernitskaya, who won with 12.5 percent. The other winners were Ellis Raskin with 13.2 and Barry Snell with 12.6 percent.

WEST HOLLYWOOD COUNCIL

Both Building Trades-endorsed candidates won in a field of 10 candidates. John Erickson was re-elected with 28 percent of the votes and Danny Hang came in second with 21 percent.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT BOARDS

COLLEGE OF THE CANYONS/ SANTA CLARITA

Area 1: Darlene Trevino won with 57 percent, defeating Building Trades endorsee Michelle Kampbell.

Area 2: Incumbent Edel Alonso, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 50.3 percent.

Edel Alonso

Area 3: Fred Arnold won with 47 percent, defeating Building Trades endorsee Andrew Taban, who came in second with 40 percent.

COMPTON

Area 2: Barbara Calhoun, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 45 percent of the vote.

Nichelle Henderson

LOS ANGELES

All four incumbents, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election: Andra Hoffman, David Vela, Nichelle Henderson and Kelsey Iino.

ELECTIONS

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 23

MT. SAN ANTONIO

District 5:

Building Trades ally Jay Chen won re-election with 67 percent.

SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARDS

ANTELOPE VALLEY JOINT UNION HIGH SCHOOL

Rosemary Mann

Area 2:

Rosemary Mann, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 45 percent in a three-person race.

BURBANK UNIFIED

Area 5:

Armond Aghakhanian, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 59 percent.

CULVER CITY UNIFIED

With the top two vote-getters winning seats, Andrew Lachman, endorsed by the Building Trades, led the field with 37 percent of the votes. Lindsay Carlson was second.

HART UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

Area 4:

With 64 percent, Erin Wilson defeated Building Trades endorsee Eric Anderson.

Ernesto Castillo

INGLEWOOD UNIFIED

Seat 5:

Ernesto Castillo, endorsed by Building Trades, won re-election with no opposition.

4 BUILDING TRADES NEWS

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED

District 1:

Sherlett Hendy Newbill, endorsed by the Building Trades, won her first term with 71 percent.

Scott Schmerelson

District 3:

Scott Schmerelson, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 51.6 percent, and then was voted as Board President by his fellow members.

District 5:

Karla Griego defeated Building Trades pick Graciela Ortiz with 61 percent.

LYNWOOD UNIFIED

Positions on the governing board went to the top three vote-getters in a field of five candidates, and the three Building Trades endorsees all won: Maria Lopez, Alma Castro and Gary Hardie Jr.

Gary Hardie Jr.

PASADENA UNIFIED

District 2:

Jennifer Hall Lee, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 70 percent.

District 6:

Tina Wu Fredericks won re-election with 63 percent, defeating Lisa Kroese, who was endorsed by the Building Trades.

POMONA UNIFIED

Area 3:

Arturo Jimenez, endorsed by the Building Trades, won a strong re-election with 73 percent of the votes.

SANTA MONICA-MALIBU UNIFIED

The Building Trades went three-for-three, with wins for endorsees Jennifer Smith, Jon Kean and Maria Leon-Vazquez.

WATER DISTRICTS

CENTRAL BASIN

Division 4:

Juan Garza, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 63 percent.

PALMDALE

Division 3:

Cynthia Sanchez, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 76 percent.

Division 4:

Kathy MacLaren-Gomez, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 78 percent.

Kathy MacLaren-Gomez

SANTA CLARITA VALLEY

Division 1:

The top two vote-getters in a field of three candidates won seats and both were endorsed by the Building Trades: Gary Martin with 43 percent and Dan Masnada with 36 percent.

Division 3:

Kathye Armitage, endorsed by the Building Trades, won a full term with 61 percent of the vote.

WATER REPLENISHMENT DISTRICT OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Division 5:

Longtime Building Trades endorsee Vera Robles DeWitt won re-election with 64 percent.

Vera Robles DeWitt

ANTELOPE VALLEY HEALTH CARE DISTRICT

Building Trades endorsee Steven Hofbauer won one of the three available seats on the board of directors, and was joined by Abdallah Farrukh with 29 percent and Kristina Hong with 28 percent.

ORANGE COUNTY

SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT BONDS

Work will be done under prevailing wage/Project Labor Agreements.

RANCHO SANTIAGO COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

Measure G

$720 million

Defeated with 51 percent of the votes; needed 55 percent to pass.

SANTA ANA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

Measure I

$355 million

Approved with 69 percent.

U.S. CONGRESS

District 38 (La Habra Heights/La Palma):

Linda Sanchez, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 60 percent of the votes.

Linda Sanchez

District 40 (Chino Hills/Tustin):

Incumbent Young Kim won with 55 percent, defeating Building Trades endorsee, Democrat Joe Kerr.

District 45 (Buena Park/Fullerton/Garden Grove):

Democrat Derek Tran, endorsed by the Building Trades, pulled off a narrow victory with 50.1 percent over incumbent Michelle Steel.

District 46 (Anaheim/Santa Ana):

Democrat Lou Correa, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 63 percent.

District 47 (Costa Mesa/Huntington Beach/Irvine):

Democrat Dave Min, endorsed by the Building Trades, won an open seat with 51.4 percent of the votes.

District 49 (Laguna Niguel/San Clemente):

Incumbent Democrat Mike Levin, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 52 percent.

BUILDING TRADES ACTION

Philip Chen

STATE SENATE

District 37 (Fullerton/Orange):

Building Trades endorsee, Democrat Josh Newman, was unseated by GOP challenger Steven Choi with 50.6 percent.

STATE ASSEMBLY

District 59 (Brea/Yorba Linda):

Republican Phil Chen, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 61 percent.

District 64 (La Habra):

Democrat Blanca Pacheco, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 54 percent of the votes.

District 67 (Cerritos/Fullerton):

Incumbent Democrat Sharon Quirk-Silva, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 56 percent.

Sharon Quirk-Silva

District 68 (Anaheim/Orange/Santa Ana):

Building Trades endorsee and Democrat Avelino Valencia won re-election with 64 percent.

District 70 (Fountain Valley/Westminster):

Republican Tri Ta, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 55 percent of the votes.

District 71 (Ladera Ranch/Mission Viejo):

Republican Kate Sanchez won with 60 percent.

District 72 (Huntington Beach/Seal Beach):

Republican Diane Dixon won re-election with 60 percent.

District 73 (Costa Mesa/Irvine/Tustin):

Cottie Petrie-Norris, a Democrat endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 57 percent of the votes.

District 74 (Dana Point/San Clemente):

Republican Laurie Davies won re-election with 57 percent.

CITY ELECTIONS

ANAHEIM COUNCIL

District 1:

Ryan Balius, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 76 percent of the votes.

District 4:

Norma Campos-Kurtz, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 71 percent.

District 5:

Kristen Maahs, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 43 percent of the votes.

BUENA PARK COUNCIL

District 2:

Carlos Franco, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 59 percent.

Carlos Franco

District 3:

Susan Sonne, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 63 percent.

District 4:

Lamiya Hoque, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 72 percent.

COSTA MESA MAYOR

John Stephens, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 53 percent of the votes.

COSTA MESA COUNCIL

District 6:

In an upset, Building Trades endorsee Jeffrey Harlan lost his seat to Jeff Pettis by only 82 votes of nearly 9,000 cast.

Cottie Petrie-Norris

Yesenia Muneton

FULLERTON COUNCIL

District 1:

Fred Jung, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 72 percent.

GARDEN GROVE COUNCIL

District 5:

Yesenia Muneton, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 51.6 percent.

District 6:

Ariana Arestegui, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 51.7 percent.

HUNTINGTON BEACH COUNCIL

With eight candidates vying for three seats, the three incumbents, all endorsed by the Building Trades, lost. New councilmembers will be Chad Williams, Butch Twining and Don Kennedy, defeating Natalie Moser, Dan Kalmick and Rhonda Bolton.

IRVINE MAYOR

Political veteran Larry Agran won his sixth non-consecutive term by defeating incumbent Building Trades endorsee Tammy Kim with 38.7 percent; Kim came in second in a field of seven candidates with 34.4 percent.

William Go

IRVINE CITY COUNCIL

District 2:

William Go, endorsed by the Building Trades, defeated four other candidates to win with 30.9 percent of the votes.

SANTA ANA MAYOR

Valerie Amezcua, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 59.9 percent of the votes.

SANTA ANA COUNCIL

The Building Trades endorsed three incumbent councilmembers, who all won re-election: Thai Viet Phan in Ward 1 with 52 percent; Jessie Lopez in Ward 3 with 51 percent; and Johnathan Ryan Hernandez in Ward 5 with 56 percent of the votes.

TUSTIN COUNCIL

District 1:

Lee Fink, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 52 percent.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT BOARDS

RANCHO SANTIAGO TRUSTEE

Area 3:

Building Trades choice Andrew Linares came in third with 18 percent, and Cecilia Iglesias won with 45 percent.

SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARDS

ANAHEIM ELEMENTARY

Area 1:

Jackie Filbeck, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 74 percent.

FULLERTON

Area 2:

James Cho, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 62 percent.

Teri Rocco

GARDEN GROVE

Area 1:

Building Trades endorsee Teri Rocco won with 53 percent.

Area 5:

Building Trades endorsee Dina Nguyen won with 88 percent.

TUSTIN UNIFIED

Area 1:

Allyson Damikolas, endorsed by the Building Trades, won re-election with 71 percent of the votes.

WATER DISTRICTS

MIDWAY CITY SANITARY DISTRICT

In a field of six candidates, the winners for two available seats were incumbent Tyler Diep, endorsed by the Building Trades, with 37 percent, and Chi Charlie Nguyen with 28 percent.

ORANGE COUNTY WATER DISTRICT

Division 6:

Cathy Green, endorsed by the Building Trades, won with 74 percent of the vote.